

June Events Bulletin

Welcome to the June edition of our Nursery Newsletter!

As summer approaches, we are excited to share a fun-packed month full of special events, outdoor activities, and learning opportunities for our little ones.

World Environment Day – Wednesday 5th June

We will be exploring the wonders of nature and learning how to care for our planet. The children will take part in eco-themed activities including recycling crafts, nature walks, and planting flowers in our garden. This is a wonderful opportunity to encourage sustainability and love for the environment.

Healthy Eating Week – 9th to 13th June

Organized by the British Nutrition Foundation, this year's theme is "Find Your Healthier You." Throughout the week, children will enjoy interactive food tasting sessions, cooking activities, and discussions about making healthy choices. We will explore fruits, vegetables, and exercise in fun and engaging ways.

Father's Day Stay & Play – Monday 16th June

We are inviting all our amazing dads/ male carers for a special stay and play session in celebration of Father's Day!

International Picnic Day – Wednesday 18th June

We are having a picnic party! The children will enjoy a fun-filled garden picnic with their friends, complete with games, music, and plenty of outdoor laughter. Blankets will be spread, songs will be sung, and everyone will come together to celebrate friendship and sunshine. Let's hope for a bright, sunny day!

Pre-School Graduation – Saturday 28th June

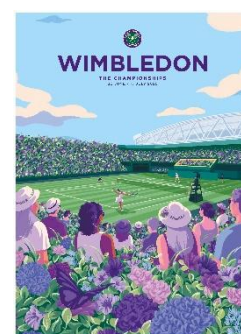

A big celebration is in store for our graduating Preschoolers only! The event will take place in our Nursery garden from 10am to 12pm. Graduating children should arrive at 9:30am to get ready and settled. Parents, please be seated by 9:50am for a prompt start at 10am. Due to limited space and safety requirements, we kindly ask that only two adults per child attend.

We are so proud of our graduates and can't wait to celebrate their incredible journey with you!

Wimbledon Begins – Monday 30th June

Game, set, match! We will be introducing the children to the fun of tennis with mini activities inspired by Wimbledon. Expect lots of ball games and sporty fun to get everyone moving.

Thank you in advance for your support!
